

6516209188.txt

I am against any attempt to diminish the programs satellite radio offers its subscribers. I look at satellite radio as the same as cable television. I pay for the service and satellite radio has every right to offer me what ever it deems is saleable. Stay out of the fray and let the consumer make the choice.